

A nice gesture for children with disabilities. Between 4 to 8 February 2013, the Children Book Department in the Local Public Library “Antim Ivireanul” Valcea celebrates WORLD INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK 2013 , through the debut of the project "Unity and diversity through music - Music Makes us one" . Children Book Department will start holding several meetings with children with disabilities, learning and communication difficulties . They will learn to play a musical instrument. Partner in the project is the School of Art "Victor Giuleanu" in Ramnicu Valcea . Professor Ilie Grigore, the project coordinator wants to give a helping hand and teach these children some of the secrets of violin, piano and vocal music and to apply music as a therapy also. Parents of children with disabilities said they were excited about the implementation of this project. Main message is: "Through music we are equal."

Irina-Luminita Grigore

Project assitant

+40754385913