

Information about Federation Square (from www.fedsquare.com)

Federation Square is Melbourne's meeting place and unique cultural precinct, and is one of the most visited tourist attractions in Victoria - receiving over 60 million visits to date.

Fed Square programs two screens – our Big Screen in the Main Square and The Atrium Screen. Each day you will experience an eclectic mix of media including cutting edge arts projects, multicultural news broadcasts, interactive Discussions in Space – giving you the opportunity to contribute direct to public debates.

Federation Square works closely with local community groups, particularly multicultural groups to support events that allow people to share their culture, traditions, food and language in the heart of Melbourne.

Fed Square hosts a range of multicultural festivals and celebrations throughout the year and is also proud to acknowledge the national days of countries from around the world.

Fed Cam is a key interactive experience here at Federation Square and involves a camera streaming live images from The Square only to www.fedsquare.com. From time to time images can also be viewed on the Big Screen.

Check out what's happening at Federation Square live!
Wave to friends overseas or at home.

Fed Cam operates in Australian Eastern Standard (AEST) times during daylight only and you will need a broadband (high speed) internet connection for optimal viewing performance. Please note that from time to time Fed Cam may be obscured by infrastructure for our major events. If you have any queries or experience technical difficulties, please email us on info@fedsquare.com.

Fed Square is the biggest free Wi-Fi site in Australia, where visitors with a laptop and a wireless connection can enjoy fast, easy internet access.