

Brussels: 3 events targeting various audiences with different emphases

February 9, 2014

WHERE: La Cambre Church

WHO: 220 Decision-makers (political, religious, diplomatic and academic authorities)

February 10, 2014 at 2.30 PM

WHERE: European School Woluwe

WHO: 250 students 17-18 years old

February 10, 2014 at 6.30 PM

WHERE: Maritime Community Center Molenbeek

WHO: 170 people from the sphere of education (Headteachers, Inspectors, Religion teachers, other Teachers, Educators, trainers, open to all)

Springboard: The Play “Pierre & Mohamed”

This play recounts one of a tragic story that actually took place in Algeria, in 1996 when Pierre Claverie, Bishop, and Mohamed Bouchikri, a Muslim driver who accompanied him, were both murdered.

- “Dialogue is a never-ending work: only dialogue enables us to disarm fanaticism, both within ourselves and in others”.
- As Francesco Agnello says: “When I watched an archive interview of Pierre Claverie, I thought ‘this is the first time that I see a man who actually lives by what he says’”.