

Voices of Moderate Islam

The Voices of Moderate Islam (VoMI) is a multi-faceted Strategic Communications initiative aimed at highlighting the values and beliefs of Islam. Its goal is to educate people who have received only a singular view of Islam through the messages and actions of radical extremist organizations.

The Voices of Moderate Islam Program is nested with the efforts established with The Amman Message. Issued in 2005 by H.M. King Abdullah II bin Al-Hussein in Amman, Jordan. The Amman Message sought to declare what Islam is and what it is not, and what actions represent it and what actions do not. Its goal was to clarify to the modern world the true nature of Islam and the nature of true Islam.

Born from intellectual analysis of why radical extremism was so deeply rooted in areas of global conflict, VoMI was first implemented in Afghanistan in 2009. This program brought 40 Afghan local leaders who were under the influence of Taliban radical extremism to Amman, Jordan for religious discussions and then to the Umrah in Mecca. The principles of VoMI were validated as the Cycle of Failure was reversed in two Afghan provinces.
