Dear Friends,

Although a committed Christian for more than 75 yrs. I recently attended Discover Islam Week for the fourth year. It's always a very exciting week with informative speakers and time to ask questions. I firmly believe that as God is father of all, and our aims and final destination are one, it is of benefit to us all to learn as much about our brothers and sisters and enjoy each-others' company here on earth.

My aim as a member of the Lincolnshire Inter-Faith Forum is to try 'to understand and be understood'.

The University of Lincoln Students' Union Islamic Society is a very active group in their endeavour to build relationships among the community, a particularly difficult task at this present time. During Discover Islam Week they raised £600.00 for the St. Barnabas Lincolnshire Hospice, by cake sales, bag packing at Morrisons, Falconry Display, etc.

Currently, work is beginning on a much needed mosque, not only for their own use but for that of the community.

Yours sincerely,

Shirl Brader
