Hi BP,

Great job with all the work for Interfaith week. I really wanted to meet Stephen Prothero but left school early to head home for the long weekend. I'm sorry that I wasn't able to help out more last week- I've had a very busy term and needed to concentrate on my school work a lot.

The Jewish holiday Purim, a joyous holiday which commemorates the Jews escaping being killed by Haman, a ruler in the Persian empire, is March 23 and 24 and the JSU board was discussing what we'd like to do to celebrate it. Since it falls right around when Easter is, we were wondering if you'd like to do a joint event. We would like to bake the traditional Purim pastry, hamantaschen, so it would need to be held in Susie's so we could use the oven. Perhaps there is an Easter craft or recipe to do in conjunction?

Let me know,
Leah

Hi Leah!

Don't worry about last week at all- I apologize too for missing parts of the Jewish weekend. I will come to the next Shabbat.

In terms of Purim and Easter, I would love to do a joint event! I have to talk to Dr. Kantor, but it sounds like an awesome thing to do. We can definitely do Easter eggs in conjunction with the pastries (if this sounds like an appropriate craft).

I will talk to Dr. Kantor tonight, and I will let you know if we have anything planned- I don't think we do- and then we can probably have a joint board meeting sometime to plan it. I'll get back to you at the very latest tomorrow.

Best,
BP

Hi!

I talked to Dr. Kantor (I am ccing her) She thinks it sounds like a great idea too. Does the 26th, that Saturday, sound like a good idea? Christians have Holy Thursday and Good Friday and Easter, which means Saturday is the ideal date for us. We can possibly do it the weekend before also. Have a great Sunday night!

Best,
BP

Notes from a joint CSF/JSU board meeting today about the Purim and Easter:

Hamantaschen (triangle cookies for Purim) – need ingredients for dough, jellies, poppy seed mix – tell Commons that rabbi will buy all the supplies

Have Louis advertise aggressively for this.

Egg dyeing (need 1 egg per person and assuming 16-17 people total) – place an order with Commons for 24 hard-boiled white eggs

BP will get the Easter egg coloring

Late morning, around 11:30, March 26th
