

COMMUNITY PEACE CONCERT

Solidarity and Unity for One Human Race

Tonight's Peace Concert is to promote inter-religious and intercultural music and dialogue for global unity and peace. There are many who seek to divide people of faith – this concert intends to bring us all together as one – regardless of our faith, traditions, or backgrounds.

This event is dedicated to our local community refugees.

May peace and harmony prevail on planet earth!

INTERFAITH PATHS TO PEACE EVENTS

Visit paths2peace.org for details

IPP's Open House

We are excited to announce that our office has moved to the Portland neighborhood! Please join us in late March for our Open House Reception. Details coming soon.

Spirituality U.

Islamophobia and Introduction to Islam with Haleh Karimi
April 1st – Details and registration on our website

Inner Peace Workshop with Harry Pickens
Details coming soon on our website and Facebook

Meditation

Free Wednesday noontime meditation
New mindfulness meditation program coming soon to Portland!

Third Thursday Lunch Presentations

Feb. 16 – Ron Russell, Immigration Attorney & Community Activist
Mar. 16 – Libby Mills, Executive Director of Restorative Justice Louisville

Join our email list for news about IPP's events and additional peace and social justice events in our community!

Master of Ceremonies

Harry Pickens

Renowned jazz pianist and community peacemaker

Words of Welcome

Haleh Karimi

Executive Director, Interfaith Paths to Peace

Gary Gibson

Senior Pastor, St. Paul United Methodist Church

Imam Wasif

River Road Mosque

Gregory Rahming

Opera Singer, Crescent Hill Baptist Church

Judy Parsley and Nancy Harris

Louisville Baha'i Community

Ahle-e Qulub

Sufi Musicians from Charleston, IL

Karen Bhutanese Youth Choir

Crescent Hill Baptist Church

Tibetan Buddhist Monks

Drepung Gomang Center for Engaging Compassion

◆◆◆ INTERMISSION ◆◆◆

Donavan White

American Blackfoot Nation

Sunder Iyer

Hindu Temple of Kentucky

Massoud Farokhi Louie

Rumi Soloist of Louisville

Harry Pickens

Words of wisdom and call to action

The Temple Choir "Shir Chadash"

*Led by Rabbi Gaylia R. Rooks & Dr. Louie Bailey
Featuring Cantor Sharon Hordes of Keneseth Israel*

Closing Song: "One Bread One Body"

Gregory Rahming & Harry Pickens

