

For The third year in a row the Compassion Games: Survival of the Kindest embraced World Interfaith Harmony Week, put out a “call to play” and encouraged individuals and teams from all of the world to sign up and participate.

We had players and teams in 29 countries report on hundreds of acts of caring and kindness to promote interfaith cooperation and peace. You can view the reports here on the Compassion Report Map

WORLD INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK FINAL RESULTS!

- Total Number of Teams: 130
- Total Volunteer Players: 7,629
- Total People Directly Served: 29,025
- Cause Contributions: $2,017,700.00

In 29 Countries Around the World!

We summarized the reports and stories on organized service projects and random acts of kindness that were reported on the map by individuals and teams all over the world. Although we encourage players to report we recognize that only a small percentage submit reports therefore we are confident that many other volunteers and people were served.

We organized a Compassion Relay to bring light to Champions of Compassion doing interfaith work all over the world. Click on each image to read a story highlighting each champion.

Champion of Compassion Spotlight: King Abdullah II of Jordan

POSTED BY JOEY CROTTY ON FEBRUARY 1, 2017

The World Interfaith Harmony Week was first proposed at the UN General Assembly on September 23, 2010 by HM, King Abdullah II of Jordan. Just under a month later, on October 20, 2010, it was unanimously adopted by the UN and henceforth the first week of February will be observed as a World Interfaith Harmony Week.

A Call to Harmony

HM King Abdullah II has long been known for his peace initiatives. The World Interfaith Harmony Week is one of his latest.

Learn More >

The World Interfaith Harmony Week provides a platform—one week in a year—when all interfaith groups and other groups of goodwill can show the world what a powerful movement they are. The thousands of events organized by these groups often go unnoticed not only by the general public, but also by other groups themselves. This week will allow for these groups to become aware of each other and strengthen the movement by building ties and avoiding duplicating each other's efforts.

Learn more about World Interfaith Harmony Week 2017 at the website.

Visit on Facebook and Twitter.

We sent out Daily Missions to thousands of Agents of Compassion daily. Click on each mission image to read the entire mission.

We created a YouTube video to highlight and summarize the results.

We are grateful for World Interfaith Harmony Week. We are ready to support this in any way we can. Jon Ramer jon@compassiongames.org 1-206 972-7356