

On the basis of its membership with The Royal Aal al-Bayt Institute for Islamic Thought, The Supreme Council of Islamic Affairs in the Republic of Chad promoted the World Interfaith Harmony Week amongst nearing Islamic countries and urged them to carry out relevant events during that same week. This has been clarified in the letter sent by the Cultural and Social Development Charity Association in the Cameroon.

A prayer day was held in Chad for the people of the heavenly religions, which Muslim and Christian's scholars attended. We will have several events on the 1st of February 2011, which coincides with the World Interfaith and Harmony Week. Furthermore, we shall encourage non-governmental associations to do the like on the International day of the Heavenly Religions campaign.
