

We Are Global Citizens

You and I are One

One with just One God

One to be free

Of prejudice

One to see beyond colours

We are of just one color

One to hear beyond hate

As One We can solely love

One to taste such World Peace

As One, We don't know war

One to smell such evil

As One, We don't know sin

One to touch All That's Love

In such Glory Above.
