“When passion is accompanied with curiosity, courage and creativity then you are on the way to Wonderland, place from where you will never want to come back“ by Biljana Jurukovski

Tribal Muses-SURI – is a collection of intimate portraits from Suri/Surma tribe that resides on the border between Ethiopia and South Sudan. What makes Suri one of the most iconic tribes is their imagination and artistic skills when it comes to beautification and being fashionable in their own way. They use their bodies as the canvases, painting unique arts on their skin with pigments made from powdered volcanic rock and adorning themselves with materials obtained from the world around them, such as flowers, leaves, grasses, shells and animal horns. Their art is endlessly inventive, magical and natural.

to me

..Dear Lucie Valisova,

As you send in Message Facebook,

Hello Najla!!! Our children's organization- International Little Artists Foundation is promotion Harmony, Unity & Acceptance in schools in USA & Around the World. We collaborate with photographers worldwide and show their photos of Children in classrooms. We absolutely love your work and your photos above! Can we show it to children? We will, of course give you a credit & keep your copyrights visible in order to promote your work! Thank you - Lucie

Our website is www.ilacconnect.org

Hi, my dear, It's my honor to share my photos with children's organization, and please just use 10 photos in this for this reason (show their photos of Children in classrooms). As you know I love too much children's, and I wish to help them with any kind they need, just let me know first.

(I would like to include your awards and achievements and your personal message of Harmony to children around the world. Thank you so very much!)

-----my

My children around the world ..

Whether you are from my homeland or not, whether you speak my language or not, whether you are rich or poor, whether you are of any race or colour.

My sons ..

The Almighty said (religion treatment) God has created us to treat people with all love and peace and happiness and Harmony to children around the world ..

Please,

Let us make our goal to achieve these goals by starting ourselves, making the goal of loving and forgiving others and accept them as they are and overlook the humiliations And to learn between us .. There is a saying (take the science from the cradle to the grave) perfection of God alone, no matter how we came from science and knowledge .. Continue and spread the science among you with love and happiness and self-confidence and patience and patience ..

I wish you the best of luck and see you at the highest grades and you are happy
