

ness as may come before the meeting.

CONTRIBUTED

HAMILTON/OXFORD Interfaith Center

The Interfaith Center at Miami University invites keynote speaker, Priya D. Klock, to present "Building Sacred Connections: Understanding How Implicit Biases Can Get in the Way of Building Meaningful Relations," from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Feb. 2. This 60-minute interactive session will focus on: the impact of culture on how one sees the world; how to identify and manage unconscious bias and blind spots; and tools and techniques for how to mitigate unconscious bias. This event will take place during the United Nations' annual observance of World Interfaith Harmony Week (Feb. 17), and will take a multi-faceted approach to implicit bias, which reflects the complexities of human social identity.

The event is co-sponsored by several Miami University affiliates. This project was

Advanced Therapy Center adds classes

The new Advanced Therapy Center adjacent to Chesterwood Village in West Chester has announced in the community battling arthritis. The eight-week sessions use the new HydroWorx pool. Led by staff, the one-hour sessions are offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1-2 p.m. for eight weeks funded in part by a grant from the unrestricted funds of the Hamilton Community Foundation (HCF), made possible by generous donors since 1951. Due to this generous donation from HCF, participants can attend this event at two locations in Butler County. The event will be held at the Interfaith Center at Miami University, 16 S. Campus Avenue, Oxford; and the Hamilton Lane Library Meeting Room, 300 N. 3rd St., Hamilton. The Hamilton location will be an interactive, live stream event.

Both events are free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served. To register for the event or for more information, call 513-863-2337.

CONTRIBUTED

the Program Director Geneva Blackmer at 513-523-4848 or email oxfordinterfaithprograms@gmail.com.

CONTRIBUTED

ROSS TWP.

Trustees to meet

The Ross Twp. Board of Trustees will conduct a special meeting at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, at 4055 Hamilton Cleves Road. The meeting will be opened to convene the Ross Twp. Records Commission to discuss the destruction of public records which are beyond the dates that they are required to be retained.

For more information, call 513-863-2337.

CONTRIBUTED LIBERTY TWP.

Kids clothing sale

West Chester Mothers of Twins & More Club's Clothing and Equipment Sale will be held from 8 a.m. to noon March 14 at Lakota East High School, 6840 Lakota Lane. Admission is $1, cash only. Cash and major credit cards are accepted at checkout. There will be gently used clothing for preteens, toys, and equipment. Funds raised through sales provide in-reach support to the families and members of the club as outreach support within our local, state and