

Morville House Dinner: Valentine's Day Celebration

A service project hosted by the Open Table organization that serves low-income senior citizens from different backgrounds dinner, in this case, pizza! This intercollegiate event called for socialization and great company and also consisted of activities such as Valentine's Day card and cupcake making and decorating. Pictures below show members of the Open Table organization distributing food and servicing the senior citizens.

See attached photos below for more insight on the House Dinner event!

