

Reclaiming the Golden Rule for Public Life

Evera Workshop for World Interfaith Harmony Week 2020

Questions by way of preparation:

1. From which-whom or what does the Golden Rule need to be 'reclaimed'?
2. If the Golden Rule no longer governs public life, what does?
3. If all citizens are 'equal before the law', what governs areas of public life, where citizens are not equal?
4. If the legal foundation of a society' government is called a 'constitution', what would be the term used for the foundation of lawful arrangements that govern areas of society not (or not directly) governed by the constitution?
5. What has religion or any spiritual world-view to do with any of these questions?

Thank you
