

"A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR OF CHRISTIAN AND MUSLIM RELATIONS IN SINGAPORE"

Harmony Centre of Singapore organised the a conversation series to discuss about the newly book launched titled Christian and Muslim relations in Singapore from Post Independence to September 11 incident. The event was held at Asian Civilization Museum.

Running simultaneously with the event is a photo-journal exhibition featuring reflection of Christian and Muslim travelers who traveled together to Turkey, Egypt and Israel to commemorate the encounter of St. Francis Assisi and Sultan Malik Al Kamil 800 years ago which shifted the Muslim-Christian relations into a more positive encounter.

The objectives of this event is to create awareness and appreciation towards Christian-Muslim relations with special focus on Singapore's history. Also to explore creative ways to encourage faith communities to express their thoughts and in this case is photo journal exhibition.

IMPACT

STRATEGIC ENGAGEMENT

30 attendees from various faith; Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Christianity and Sikhism.
23 pilgrims produced photojournal.

100% agree that
This session encourages me to deepen my understanding on my faith values and how to use these values for the benefit of community

100% agree that
This session allows me to garner rich perspective and gain a better understanding of practices/ behaviors that are different from my own.