

World Interfaith Harmony Week reaffirms that mutual understanding and interreligious dialogue constitute important dimensions of a culture of peace. We proclaim the first week of February every year for World Interfaith Harmony between all religions, faiths and beliefs. We encourage all to support, each according to their own religious traditions or convictions, the spread of interfaith harmony and goodwill within the world's churches, mosques, synagogues, temples and other places of worship during this week, based on love of God and love of one's neighbour [as equal to] love of the good and love of one's neighbor. World Interfaith Harmony Week is not a call to water down one's faith, but rather it's a call to respect our differences and personal beliefs and to unite around the basic principles that people of all beliefs agree upon and to understand that harmony can only come if we build upon a solid foundation of dialogue that has "Love of God and love of the neighbor or, love of Good and love of the neighbor" as its core principle for engagement.

Interfaith Community Sanctuary honors World interfaith Harmony Week as we share personal stories about walking an interfaith path with courage.
