“Here in Melbourne I breathe Christianity. I can’t help it.
...But there is one thing that we have given humanity, and that is Hallelujah !”

Rabbi Jack Engel. At the beginning of an Interfaith Conversation, Monash University-Caulfield Campus 1994

“I am deeply intrigued to hear the good news others proclaim...Our daily prayer in the grace after meals asks God to send us soon Elijah-Al Khidr with the good news of redemption and consolation... When a Christian proclaims what he or she knows a good news, I want to hear it...

Rabbi Zalman Schacter-Shalome. Bases and Boundaries of Jewish, Christian, and Moslem Dialogue (around 2000)

“There are Christians whose life seems like Lent without Easter... Joy adapts and changes, but it always endures, even as a flicker of light born of our personal certainty, that, when everything is said and done, we are infinitely loved. “

Pope Francis Evangelii Gaudium 2013 p13

“The Qur’an does not speak only to men. It speaks, quite explicitly to women. I knew this at a young age, not because I read the Qur’an, but because I talked to God all the time. I knew with certainty that He responded...

Hibba Abugideiri, George Washington University

“Isn’t it a noble and enlightened way of spending our brief time in the sun, to work at understanding the universe and how we have come to wake up in it?”

Richard Dawkins Unweaving the Rainbow 1996 pp5-6

Conversation

Being at peace with yourself: a key to all world harmony.
Recognize yourself as your own closest neighbour

Lack of self-confidence is a challenge, lack of self-worth a mental health issue and a world-pathology.

People are being programmed to become disposable objects on consumerist and labour markets or on ideological battlefields.

This year's conversation will focus on discerning between selfish and unselfish 'self-love' or 'self-denial', mature or immature, healthy or pathological, carelessness masked as 'freedom', or killing in name of religion as 'heroism'.

If you can walk you can dance"
