

"I cannot emphasize enough the importance of events such as were held over UN Harmony Week. Truth and harmony are to be found in our full acceptance of each other's different approaches toward our common central goal of pure freedom. May we all earnestly help each other towards this."
Swami Purnananda