

Celebration of World Interfaith Week Feb 02, 2022,

At the University of Karachi, Pakistan

MasterPeace Pakistan Karachi & ICPH, celebrated World Interfaith Week on February 2, 2022, at the University of Karachi with the Head of the Departments Professor Doctors Scholars of various Departments like Islamic Studies, Computer Science, Pharmacy, Law, and Arts & Social Sciences, etc.

The University of Karachi is the largest University of Pakistan where forty-six thousand students are registered at present of which 70 percent are females (empower women) and 30 percent Males, whereas, eight hundred permanent faculty members and seven hundred visiting faculty members.

As well, at the University of Karachi the highest number of PHDs Professors are serving as the head of the department, the idea is to celebrate and aware about the World Interfaith Harmony Week (which is the first time) to the Head of Departments and then they propagate the message to their department teachers, and then teachers discuss and aware their students because it is very difficult to cater the whole University.

At the University of Karachi, the World Interfaith Harmony Week Celebration plays a vital role as an occasion that is intended to celebrate the Pakistan Students religious diversity and to strengthen ties between communities of different faiths and religious beliefs to promote inclusion, understanding, and tolerance between the students with religious and non-religious beliefs.
