To Whom It May Concern

The World Interfaith Harmony Week celebrated the first week of February around the world vividly reminds us of humanity's unity and common values and destiny.

The Center for United Nations Constitutional Research (CUNCR) is an independent think-tank focused on the United Nations Charter and on promoting the constitutionalization of the UN and of international law, with the aim of legitimizing global governance and affirming the global rights of "we the peoples". The Center for United Nations Constitutional Research, headquartered in Brussels, Belgium, is a not-for-profit, independent organization, with no governmental, religious or partisan, affiliation.

We greatly appreciate the active and lasting engagement of faith leaders around the world for their positive contributions to the peaceful settlement of conflicts, social harmony and values-based support of justice and governance.

With all best wishes,

Daniel Schaubacher
