World Peace

Since the day man has developed the nuclear Weapons, nations have been Oppressed more and more by a fear from other nations who also have nuclear weapons.

It is, indeed, a matter of regret that nations have always been at war with

One another. The Periods of peace have been few but they have always been glorious ones.

It looks odd if anybody say that the War bring fruitful time when it comes to an end. Thousands of Soldiers and even common civilians were killed in two Major Wars of the twentieth Century. World War I and World War II.

After the World War II, UNO was set up, whose chief aim was to ensure peace and security in the world. India is also playing a good role in bringing peace in the world by suggesting the destruction of nuclear weapons across the world. International Day of Peace is also provide awareness about the Peace UN decided to celebrate international Peace day in 1982. Peace means freedom from war and terror. Peace is necessary for life for living and happiness.

World peace is an idea of freedom, peace and happiness among everyone. World peace is an idea of a world without violence, where nations try to work with each other. World Peace could mean equal human rights, technology, free education for everyone, engineering, availability of medicine, diplomats and/or an end to all forms of fighting.

A report in May 2011 on the Global Peace Index, found that if the world had been 25% more peaceful in the previous year, the global economy would have had an additional $2 trillion. This amount would have covered 2% of the GDP per year required to avoid the worst effects of global warming, cover all costs to achieve the Millennium Development Goals, cancel the public debt held by Greece, Ireland and Portugal, and cover the one-time rebuilding costs for the 2011 Tohoku earthquake and tsunami.

Many religions believe in world peace. The League of Nations and the United Nations were created to make world peace. Many theologists, however, believe that humans were born to be violent and preventing it would not be possible because it is nature.

World peace means cooperation between countries without any violence. The definition of Peace is not just related to absence of war; it also means presence of law and justice in a country.

All of us have imagined ourselves living in peace and harmony. We all want a world where there is no war, no racism, no terrorism, and no violence. Unfortunately, no area of this world is safe from the advanced destructive weapons. If one bad thing happens in one area of

Peace doesn't mean that there will be no conflicts, but it's the ability to overcome those conflicts peacefully.

World peace is a commonly debated issue among today's society. Questions that arises are :- Will it ever be attained? When? Is it even possible? These questions have reached the minds of all, with a variety of opinions. Political status and great varieties. Many people, like the founding fathers of United States, had everyone's best interest in mind.

Most political parties also have the nation's best interests in mind.

Unfortunately, some nations are governed by a political faction forced upon them.

“Peace cannot be kept by force. It can only be achieved by understanding”

To sum it up, peace is a essential to control the evils which demand our society. It is obvious that we will keep facing crises on many level but we can manage them better with the help of peace. Moreover, peace is vital for humankind to survive and strive for a better future.

“An eye for an eye only ends up making the whole world blind.”

World Peace

→ World Peace Can be referred to as the State of People from all Countries in the world being happy and living harmoniously with each other.

→ World Peace creates one international community that can concentrate on greater issues that are affecting the Planet like climate change.

→ When Countries work together, they benefit their Citizens since they can freely move from one country to another for employment, education or tourism.

★ Importance of World Peace

→ World Peace leads to increased globalization. Globalization is the act where people from different countries are able to interact freely with each other in various aspects.

→ World Peace also leads to the promotion of tourism. With peace, people are free to tour any country of their choice without fear or violence.

★ How to achieve World Peace

→ We can achieve world peace through having international bodies that will ensure that every nation upholds world peace. Such a body is United Nations and other world organizations that ensure every country has the responsibility of promoting peace.

→ We can also achieve world peace through upholding democracy. The main cause of world violence is dictatorship.

★ Conclusion

→ World peace is very important in the growth and prosperity of the entire global community. This is because with world peace we are able to have more social cohesion and interactions to everyone.

When countries collaborate, their citizens benefit because they can freely move from one country to another for employment, education, or tourism.

Importance of world peace

Globalization accelerates when there is world peace. Globalization is the act of allowing people from different countries to freely interact with one another in a variety of ways.

Tourism is promoted as a result of world peace. People are more free to travel to any country of their choice without fear of violence when there is peace.

Cultural exchanges are also aided by world peace. People can freely interact with one another, and they can learn about different cultures from others.

World peace benefits more developed economies as well. This is because people can make both domestic and Foreign investments without fear of future violence.

World peace also contributes to people banding together to combat unjust vices. People can speak with one voice to end vices such as racism, religious discrimination, and gender inequality.

World peace also helps to reduce the number of wars. If there was world peace, warring countries or internal national conflicts could be reduced. War is the leading cause of human suffering throughout the world.

With world peace, you can be sure that people will have more freedom. People have more freedom, regardless of their religion, race, or country of origin. This contributes to global cohesion.

Peace is the path we take for bringing growth and prosperity to society. If we do not have peace and harmony, achieving political strength, economic stability and cultural growth will be impossible.

Moreover, before we transmit the notion of peace to others, it is vital for us to possess peace within. It is not a certain individual's responsibility to maintain peace but everyone's duty. Thus, an essay on peace will throw some light on the same topic.

Peace is liked by all. It is for peace that we pray to god every morning and evening. Peace hath her victories no less glorious than war. It is in peace time that we have great men, high thoughts and golden deeds. Peace encourages education, trade, commerce and industry. Greater than personal peace is the peace of the nation and still greater is the world peace. This is possible when there is no war in any corner of the world.

Unfortunately the world peace was badly disturbed twice. The beast in man was uppermost then. I would war I was fought, as they said, to end war. Its result were horrible. One third of the world population was killed. At its close the league of nations was set up at Geneva. Its aim was to check war in future. But it had no power. The world war I came in 1939 and lasted upto 1945. 'Hitler' and 'Mussolini' threw every code of human morality to wind but they were defeated in the end.

The U.N.O was set up at California. It was aimed with end international army. The big four powers were given veto power since its birth it has been trying power & its best to check war and to safe guard the fundamental rights of man. It has declared its objectives. But unfortunately, the big four make use of it as a platform to further national ends cold war is going on they are fighting ideological war inspite of several top meetings for disarmament, there is still a race for nuclear weapons tests and explosions have not been checked. The world is now all the mouth of a volcano.

No one wants war for if war comes this time, it will mean the end of mankind. There will be no victor to enjoy the fruits of victory men like bestrand russed have advocated one world govt but selfish politicians are not ready to sink their personal and national interests. Some think that war is a biological need.

Man is a fighter first. So we have no hope from man. It is why Mahatma Gandhi said that woman alone can give peace. She is the incarnation of ahimsa, having infinite love and an infinite capacity for service and sacrifice. She can give the nectar and of love to the children. She can produce children like Gandhi, the Christ and the Buddha.

We need no Napoleon, No Alexander, none of the type. We want prophets of peace. Let our mother and sister come forward and save the world from total destruction. Without them there would be no world peace. A time will come when we shall find our existence in danger.

 We are avoiding future conflict. There has been instilled an idea that war is honorable and patriotic, that fighting is good when, in reality, it causes death, poverty, and famine. From an early age, children learn about war and violence. Violent messages permeate movies and video glorify killing. The media insinuates that violence will solve our problems and lead to peace. This propaganda is perversely false-war cannot be regarded separately from the horrible atrocities they make it up.

In order to insure a peace-oriented society, we must implement what has worked in the past and analyze what actions require modification. One idea that assisted in the creation of the past was Christ's commitment to clarity, simplicity, and popularization. For clarity, we Need to inform even the youngest of citizen about the need for peace. We should at least offset—if not eliminate—the toleration of violence with a more vocal praise of peace.

World Peace

The International Day of Peace, Sometimes officially known as World Peace Day, is a United Nations Sanctions holidays observed annually on 21 September. It is dedicated to world peace, and specifically the absence of war and violence. The day was first celebrated in 1981. In 2013 the day was dedicated by the secretary. General of the United Nations to peace education, the key preventive means to reduce war sustainably.

Peace is a common desire of people through out world, keeping peace and developing friendly relations among nations are among the main objectives of the United Nations. Peace is more than absence of war. The true meaning of the day lies in the participation of people around the world, gathering to think about the meaning of peace and their commitment to its realization.

Since the day man has developed the nuclear weapons, nations have been oppressed more and more by a fear from other nations who also have nuclear weapons.

It is, indeed, a matter of regret that nations have always been at war with one another. The period of peace have been few but they have always been glorious ones.

World Peace essay may appear an main idea of which is not only to inform the humanity, but to knock to their consciousness in order to make them aware of the frailties of war. The explanation for this, which may easily be emphasized in world Peace essay, is quite simple: war hardly ever finishes in the way it has been previously expected and practically never brings total satisfaction to its participants. Anyone interested in custom essay completion may apply to this idea in their writing and to state their personal matters. However much the issue is discussed in number and numerous custom term papers and world Peace essays, it needs further development and mass awareness.

An essay about world Peace is a kind of writing that deals with the information about global Peace or the tranquility in the whole world. Moreover, the idea of Peace maintenance should not be imposed from the authorities.

World Peace or Peace on Earth is the concept of an ideal state of happiness, freedom and Peace within and among all People and nations on Planet Earth. Within this idea of the World nonviolence is one motivation for People and nations to willingly cooperate, either voluntarily or by virtue of a system of governance that has this objective. Different cultures, religion, philosophies and organizations have varying concepts on how such a state would come about.

Various religious and secular organizations have the stated aim of achieving World Peace through addressing human rights, technology, education, engineering, medicine, or diplomacy used as an end to all forms of fighting. Since 1945, the United Nations and the five Permanent members of its Security Council (China, France, Russia, UK, U.S) have operated under the aim to resolve conflicts without war or declarations of war. Nonetheless, nations have entered numerous military conflicts since then.

→ International Day of Peace :-

The International Day of Peace, sometimes called World Peace Day is observed annually on 21 Sept. It is dedicated to peace and specifically the absence of war and violence, and can be celebrated by a temporary ceasefire in a combat zone. The International Day of Peace was established in 1981 by the United Nations General Assembly. Two decades later, in 2001, the General Assembly unanimously voted to designate the day as a day of preventing violence and a cease-fire. The celebration of this day is recognized by many nations and people. In 2013, for the first time, the day has been dedicated to peace education, i.e. by the key preventive means to reduce war sustainably.

Many Buddhists believe that world peace can only be achieved if individuals establish peace within their minds first. The Buddha's teachings emphasize that anger and other negative states of mind are the cause of wars and fighting. Buddhists believe people can live in peace and harmony only if they abandon negative emotions such as anger and cultivate positive emotions such as loving kindness and compassion. As with all Dharmic religions (Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism and Sikhism) ahimsa is a central concept.

"Hatred is never appeased by hatred in this world. By non-hatred alone is hatred appeased. This is a law eternal."

Many theories as to how world peace could be achieved have been proposed. Several of these are listed below.

Associated with peace through strength are Concepts of preponderance of power (as opposed to balance of power) hegemonic stability theory, unipolar stability and imperial peace.

Traditionally, Hinduism has adopted an ancient Sanskrit phrase Vasudhaiva kutumbakam, which translates as "The world is one family". The essence of this concept is the observation that only base minds see dichotomies and divisions. The more we seek wisdom, the more we become inclusive and free our internal spirit from worldly illusions or Maya. World peace is hence only achieved through internal means - by liberating ourselves from artificial boundaries that separate us all. As with all Dharmic and Religions, (Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism and sikhism), ahimsa (avoidance of violence) is a central concept.

With peace, people are free to tour any country of their choice without fear of violence. World Peace also contributes to the reduction of wars. Warring countries or internal nations conflicts can be reduced if world peace existed.
