Peace be upon you

Dear believers of every religion,

LETTER OF SUPPORT FOR UNITED NATIONS WORLD INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK

This letter is to express our full support for the World Interfaith Harmony Week.

This annual event as proposed in 2010 by HM King Abdullah II and HRH Prince Ghazi of Jordan is observed by United Nations in order to promote peace, tolerance, understanding, cooperation, dialogue, and harmony as well as to eliminate religious discrimination.

Hence, in conjunction with this year's commemoration, students of the Course PPPH3623 Comparative Mysticism of the Faculty of Islamic Studies, National University of Malaysia (UKM) team up with student religious organizations of various faiths in the university to celebrate this event together by arranging Forum on Spiritual Health in the Perspective of Religions on 30th of January at the Faculty of Islamic Studies.

To show the full support for this initiative, below are signatories representing of respective student religious organizations:
