

PANEL DISCUSSION: BEING HUMAN AGAIN: HOPE FOR RECONCILIATION

FEBRUARY 5, 2025 | 10:00AM EST | VIRTUAL

- How can religious teachings guide reconciliation in divided societies?
- What practical steps can faith communities take to address social injustice and foster unity?
- How do we cultivate hope in the face of past divisions and ongoing conflicts?
- The role of interfaith dialogue in bridging historical and cultural differences.

Sign up here:

Golden Rule: "Do Unto Others as You Would Have Them Do Unto You."

WORLD INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK
The Official UN Observance in the 1st Week of February

JOURNALISTS AND WRITERS FOUNDATION

Sign up here

BEING HUMAN AGAIN: HOPE FOR RECONCILIATION

FEBRUARY 5, 2025 | 10:00AM EST | VIRTUAL

Moderators

Nancy Falcon

Expert in Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue
Italy / Argentina

Dr. Rajendran Govender

Social Cohesion Advocate
CRL Rights Commissioner
South Africa

Rabbi Silvina Chemen

Vice Rector of the Abarbanel
University Institute
Argentina

Imam Gazi Aga

Director of the Northeast
Islamic Community Center
United States

Prof. Sumathi Srinivasalu

Adjunct Professor Department of Anthropology
University of Madras
India

Speakers

JWFoundation_

jwfglobal

JWF

www.jwf.org

www.jwfacademy.org