

Celebrating World Interfaith Harmony Week

Religions for Peace
USA

EL-HIBRI
FOUNDATION

World Interfaith Harmony Week is February 1-7. How will you participate? How about some engaging dialogue, learning, & interfaith professional development?

We've collected some of the best leaders in interfaith work today and are offering them up in a tempting menu of free webinars. It's like attending a whole conference in little bits each day for a week. And did we mention it was free?

The El-Hibri Foundation and Religions for Peace USA present (in alphabetical order):

- Beth Katz: Innovative Strategies with Media in Interfaith Work;
- Chris Stedman: Involvement of atheists and secularists in dialogue
- Gerry Serotta with Yahya Hendi: Answering difficult questions from youth in interfaith dialogue;
- Mohammed Abu-Nimer: Dialogue methods and best practices
- Or Rose and Jennifer Peace Howe: The future of interfaith in higher education),
- Patrice Brodeur: New research and following the data;
- and others.

Sign up today to get more information about the offerings and login information. An initial overview will be mailed to you and a set of instructions will be emailed to you the day of each event to give the link for the live webinar. Webinars are hosted on Google Hangout and recordings of them are posted on You Tube.
