To whom it may concern,

I'd like to recommend Mildrade Manwei as a fellow for the Washington Fellowship for Young African Leaders. Mildrade Manwei has diligently served as the National Director of World Faith Cameroon since 2012.

I serve as Executive Director of World Faith, a global youth-led interfaith organization that deinceivizes violence by mobilizing religiously diverse youth to design and implement development projects. We are active in 15 countries, taking on issues such as poverty, public health, women's empowerment, and education. We break down the narrative of conflict by creating opportunities for young people to recognize the humanity of their fellow youth while volunteering together.

Mildrade is an African leader committed to bridging the gaps between different faith communities and ethnic groups in Cameroon. She and her team implemented a public health project, helping villages raise money for a public restroom and ensuring its use through sanitation education. The organization also works with local orphanages, helping to improve their standards of living.

For all these reasons and more I strongly recommend Mildrade. Please feel free to reach out to me for further information as you see fit. You can reach me at 917.514.2284 or via email, at frank@worldfaith.org. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Frank Fredericks

TESTIMONIAL

On behalf of the South West Regional Leadership of The Cameroon Youths for Jesus (CYJ), I, the Regional Coordinator acknowledge the impact of Youth Empowerment Community Initiative Group (YECIG). And particularly the passion of the founder/president Mildrade Manwei Abendong precisely when it comes to educating and empowering youths with life support skills and projects. She has proven her competence in motivating youths from different cultural, traditional and religious backgrounds toward a common purpose and good for all. Her all inclusive and non-biased programs and events are loved and massively attended by the youths and people in our Region. The rights, faith and beliefs of participants are never judged or abused; as a result authorities of government and privately owned secondary schools and colleges have left their doors wide open to programs, events and activities of YECIG. Most especially if they are to be coordinated by Mildrade Manwei Abendong. I was privileged to be one of the distinguished guests at the YECIG most recent Lecture on the theme "Religious Diversity: A Factor of Peace, Harmony and Development." This program was held on 20th Feb. 2014 at the CYJ campus by 10:00am to 12noon. This lecture has widen the scope of our youths in the area of love, as they were made to understand the power of love which does not discriminate, hate or keeps records of wrongs. As a result they were told to love one another regardless of our religious differences.

She always demonstrates strong love and passion for humanity regardless religious backgrounds or affiliation. Based on this, Mildrade Manwei Abendong and YECIG are very successful in humanitarian endeavours and in promoting peace and the historic religious harmony which our nation Cameroon is known world wide to have.

In testimony whereof, this acknowledgment is issued to serve wherever and whenever need arise.
