

WORLD INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK

The Official UN Week

1st Week of February

FEBRUARY 2, 2014, 10 AM

RELIGION IN CONFLICT: SOURCE OF RESOLUTION OR PART OF THE PROBLEM?

Come to William and Mary's second annual Interfaith conference. This conference celebrates World Interfaith Harmony Week, as adopted by the UN General Assembly. We will explore religion in conflict, addressing causes and misinterpretations, promoting non-violence and multifaith understanding as tools for peace.

- H.E. Ebrahim Rasool, Ambassador of South Africa: "How Interfaith Cooperation Helped Defeat the Apartheid"
- Dr. Sarhang Hamasaeed, USIP: "Interfaith Solidarity in the Kurdish Struggle for Identity"
- Ms. Dena Trugman, Interfaith Youth Core: "Developing Campus Interfaith Activism"

Made possible with generous support from: the W&M Center for Student Diversity, Office of Community Engagement, the Reves Center for International Studies, Student Assembly, and International Relations Department.

Join I-Faith, W&M's Interfaith club, in exploring the roots and causes of a variety of conflicts.

Hosting the Ambassador to the United States Ebrahim Rasool of South Africa

Catered lunch

Everyone is welcome!!
